

AUDITIONS!

The Archdiocesan Boy Choir of Philadelphia, the country's only boys' choir dedicated exclusively to singing sacred music, is holding auditions for boys in 2nd through 8th grades. All you need is a love of music and a willingness to learn and have fun while praising the Lord in song.

The Boy Choir in Avila, Spain, 2010

Make friends and sing with boys from all over the Philadelphia region. ABC sings regularly throughout the Archdiocese, including Christmas Eve Mass in the Cathedral Basilica of Sts. Peter and Paul and Christmas and Palm Sunday concerts in other churches. You'll also have opportunities to join the choir for pilgrimages to shrines and other holy sites. The choir repertoire of sacred music ranges from ancient chants to new music still in manuscript, in several languages. Rehearsals are challenging, but fun.

Parents: If your son has an ear for music and loves to sing, please call to schedule an audition. Give your son the opportunity to share his voice in the praise of God. He'll learn much more than just how to sing; he'll learn discipline, church traditions and history, and what it means to be an active member of the Catholic Church.
